INFO 287

The Hyperlinked Library

✅ Assignment X Submission Checklist

◆ 1. Required Components (2.5 points)

- Focus on a foundational course concept — Choose a theme or idea central to the Hyperlinked Library model.
- Clear, engaging writing — Follows a logical structure; prose is polished and shows effort.
- Technical quality — Blog is free of errors (grammar, spelling, formatting).
- Enhancements included — Use of images, links, media enriches the post.
- Proper citations — Style is consistent; sources are clearly referenced.
- Submitted on time — Aligns with course deadlines (June 22).

◆ 2. Connections to Course Content (2.5 points)

- Includes relevant course materials — Integrates readings, lectures, videos, and/or peer discussions.
- Supports ideas with research — May bring in outside sources where appropriate.
- Links ideas to library or information practice — Discussion connects back to the profession and course themes.

◆ 3. Comprehension and Analysis (2.5 points)

- Demonstrates understanding of course themes — Thoughtful engagement with key ideas.
- Offers a personal response — Reflects your perspective and synthesis of course content.
- Analyzes chosen topic deeply — Goes beyond summary; engages critically with concepts.

◆ 4. Progression of Thought and Reflection (2.5 points)

- Demonstrates learning progression — Shows how understanding has grown since the start of the course.
- Innovative or forward-thinking approach — Sparks ideas for deeper exploration throughout the term.

- Connects back to professional goals — Situates the reflection within a broader vision for your library practice.

🌟 Tips for Success

- Refer to Module Themes: Ground your reflection in current or past modules (e.g., Participatory Service, Hyperlinked Communities, Emerging Tech).
- Use Media Creatively: Visuals, GIFs, videos, or infographics can enhance your narrative.
- Reflect Forward: Let this be a springboard for your Innovation Strategy and other major assignments.

This page was developed with support from Hyperlinked Library Insights, an AI-enhanced course partner that has been trained on the full content of INFO 287: The Hyperlinked Library, including modules, assignments, and grading criteria.